

STS Media Productions was established in 1999 with the purpose of creating a full service multimedia production company. The company utilizes the varied skills of the husband and wife team of Dennis and Sue Stretar. The following is a general summary of our broadcasting and media production experience and skills.

Radio

- Created, produced, and co-hosted the Colorado Today weekly public affairs radio program on AM1430 KEZW for seven years (1999 - 2006).
- On-air interviews with over 500 high profile state and national figures including healthcare and healthy lifestyle experts, mayors, governors, cabinet secretaries, state and federal elected representatives and senators. (Guest list available upon request)
- Radio productions were live in-studio and live remote broadcasts as well as pre-recorded national guest interviews.

Television

- Produced 15 three-minute informational segments on care-giving for broadcast on KBDI-12 PBS.
- Produced a Public Television Special Fighting Breast Cancer – A Personal Story broadcast on KBDI-12 PBS. (<http://stsmidiaproductions.com/page1.html>)
- Produced the documentary film "Most Hallowed Ground" The Story of Arlington National Cemetery. Distributed nationally to schools and libraries by Library Video Company and Amazon.com (<http://stsmidiaproductions.com/page10.html>).

Internet

- Produced videos for Internet broadcasting featuring informational and educational issues, methodologies, and events. Re-introduced Health Aging Today as an Internet broadcasting network. (<http://healthyagingtoday.com>).

Multimedia Production Experience and Capabilities

- Produced Internet based videos with website design and hosting as well as broadcast quality videos for television viewing
- Corporate promotional videos, training films, and informational/educational films, and documentaries.

Project Management

- FY 2002 – 2004 was granted funds by the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services to create and produce the Healthy Aging Today series for broadcast on the Colorado Today public affairs radio program on AM1430 KEZW and KBDI-12 PBS television.
 - ❖ Under Title III of the Older Americans Act – National Family Caregiver Support Programs (project # 561002 contract # EX0233).
 - ❖ Matching funds by the State of Colorado and The Rose Family Foundation. Administered by the Denver Regional Council of Governments (DRCOG).
 - ❖ Wrote and produced a series of news and informational segments for broadcast on radio and television. The content gave caregivers tips and resource information to help in the care of an aging loved one.
 - ❖ Personally administered the grant to completion, satisfying the Federal, State, and Local government stake holders.
